The old scare that the world's coal is near exhaustion is now pretty well exploded. New coal areas are constanty being opened, and the old ones are by no means near exhausted.

The balloon has become a marine life-saving appliance. The big ocean grayhounds will soon, it is thought, be equipped with life boats harnessed to balloons so as to be practically unsinkable. This novel device has been patented by a shrewd Connecticut Yankee.

Australia has no orphan asylums. Every child who is not supported by parents becomes a ward of the state and is paid a pension for support, and placed in a private family, where board and clothes are provided until the 14th birthday.

A Washington man has performed the trick of lighting a cigar with a piece of ice by forming of it a double convex lens and focusing the sun's rays through it on the roll of tobacco. Ice will not be introduced, however, as a substitute for matches. Not many people have "ice to burn," and the sun is not always Twenty-three colleges in the Uniteq States were founded before the beginuing of this century. Among the leading ones are: Harvard, 1636; William and Mary, 1693; Yale, 1701; University of Pennsylvania, 1740; Princeton, 1746; Washington and Lee, 1749; Columbia, 1754; Brown, 1764; Rutgers, 1766; Dartmouth, 1769; Hampden-Sidney, 1775; Washington (Md.), 1782, and Dickinson, 1785.

been given to the Salvation Army that It may try the experiment of reclaiming of honest industry. The plan is by no means new, nor have similar experiments met with much success in the past. But the salvationists are certainly well qualified to carry out a projtet of this kind, and if they succeed they will undoubtedly be able to secure land for similar purposes in every state in the union.

If Senator Morrill lives to the end of the term which he is now serving-that is, till March 3, 1897-he will have served five full terms in the senate, which no man has yet done. Many people think that Thomas H. Benton served for five full terms, but this is not a fact. Benton served from the time of Missouri's admission to the union until March 3, 1851, but, as Missouri did not become a state till August, 1821, it is seen that Benton did not serve for five full senatorial terms.

The Welsh are now doing a bit of claiming - they claim Shakespeare. They have found that the poet had a grandmother, or great-grandmother. whose name was Griffith, a Celitic-Welsh family of strong traits. They are claiming others also. In fact they are trying to prove that English literature is not English, or Anglo-Saxon, but Welsh or Celtic. The Welsh might as well claim them all as the English. It amounts to the same thing We are the heirs of them all.

In some things the Japanese point or view is very different from that of other countries, and especially is this true in regard to railway laws. The track of the Kama-Kura railway is not tenced in, and crossings rarely have gates. A boy carrying a child on his known. back, straying on the line, was recently knocked down by an engine, and both boy and child were killed. Considerable apprehension has been excited among Bostonians of a certain sort by the persistence of rumors about a plan for confining the city's liquor saloons to a prescribed territory outside of the residential districts. Nobody seems to know just how or why or by whom this scheme is to be carried out, but as Boston has few or no districts in which very considerable numbers of people do not live, those for whom a convenient saloon is regarded as a necessary condition of existence show an than were employed last year. angry irritation that such a project should have advanced far enough even Featherstone celebrated her 100th to have become a topic of conversation. birthday anniversary.

AN APPEAL FROM CUBA

to the Representatives of the Latin American Republics For Intervention in Her Behalf—The Opportune Moment is Here to Bring About the Indepen-dence of the Island Without Involving Spain in Absolute Loss.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 .- The repreation, and occupation of each, as near from Salvador Cesneros and Rafael Pontuondo y Tamayo, president and secretary of foreign affairs of the Cuban republic. After a lengthy review of the progress of the war from its inception, the message concludes: "Now is the proper and opportune moment. Once freed from their mother countries the Latin-American republics were able to maintain, without displeasure and without dishonor, such material and mental relations as their similarity of origin made easy to establish. Spain recognized in the end that her old colonies were wise in becoming independent. Cuba is determined to conquer her independence, even at the risk of having to resort to the gravest extremes, but now that her victorious soldiers overrun the entire island; now that all her sons have indorsed the revolutionary movement and are ready to support her army and furnish it with all elements of war at whatever sacrifice, she wishes to show her American sisters that she is inclined to peace and, consequently invites their governments to unite their good efforts with Spain in order to put an end to this war, on such conditions as may secure for Cuba her sovereignty and for Spain all compensations which may render less enerous the territorial loss which she must necessarily sus-

"We rely on the wisdom of the Latin-American republics upon their love for liberty, sure that they will appreciate the nobleness of our intentions, the justice of our rights, and the mutual convenience for so many countries; that the independence of Cuba, founded upon the blood and efforts of her sons, may be finally accomplished through the intervention and the agreement of all the nations of our
